BANK OF HAWAII

Of course you can afford to save. No matter how little you earn, you can afford to put aside in the bank at least a portion of your wages.

You may have to go without certain luxuries which you now think indispensable—but in a very short time you will find that the saved amounts are worth much more than the luxuries you gave up.

Try the plan; it's worth while!

MAUI NEWS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 14.—At the Alexander House Gymnasium last Saturday evening a very pleasant dance was given for the Gym Bowling team that goes to Honolulu this week on Friday to play the Oahu rollers. The music for the dance was by the Maui Quintet Club, that assisted in every way possible to make the affair a success. While the crowd was not as large as was hoped for, yet over twenty-five couples greatly enjoyed the evening's pleasure.

The bowling team this year has been captained by W. S. Chillingworth. He and the other members of the team, W. E. Bal, Jr., Wm. Scholtz, J. H. Nelson and Ed. Deiner are sure of putting up some good work and hope to win the series from Oahu. The Oahu team last Harvest Home festival tournament for the first time in many years won from Maui. L. E. Kammeheira would be on the team this season except for the fact that the Maui Semi-Annual Association meetings are coming at Wailuku on the 17th and they will last several days.

The public schools of Maui began today with a large enrollment. It is claimed that there will be more pupils in the schools this year than ever before.

Maunaloa Seminary opened this afternoon with a very large number of pupils already on the grounds, and many more coming within a day or two.

Lahainaluna, as has been the case for several years, is obliged to turn away pupils, the application of new students having been so large.

Last Wednesday evening at the Maui Hotel a very pleasant affair was arranged in honor of Judge W. S. Edging who has been appointed to the bench in this circuit. There was no speech-making but stories and jokes were the order of the evening. Besides the new judge those present were D. H. Case, E. R. Bevins, W. F. Crockett, Enos Vincent, J. W. Kalus and Eugene Murphy.

Dr. William Osmer arrived a week ago from the coast whither he had gone for a four of five weeks' vacation. The popular Wailuku physician returned in fine health, having greatly enjoyed a week in the mountains, and a week spent in the company of his mother. The ocean voyage and the outing has done the doctor good. During his absence Dr. Rothrock, intern from Queen's Hospital, substituted for Dr. Osmer. Dr. Rothrock is now at Kahului, while Dr. Young is on a short vacation in Honolulu.

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold their annual bazaar on October 31st at the Alexander House Gymnasium in Wailuku. The affair will be followed by a dance.

Advices received by James Robertson, general freight agent for the Oceanic line at this port, state that the Sierra due here on Monday morning will bring a large miscellaneous cargo. A number of automobiles will be included in the shipment.

Flowergrams thoughtfully sent will be heartily welcomed.
